Imagine...

Never Get Thirsty.

Ever.

It was a terribly hot day.

Right about noon. The sun blasting the ground. Jesus had stopped to rest at a well on the outskirts of a town. In those days, you couldn't turn on a faucet and have fresh water come out. Nope. People had to come out to this well to fill up jugs of water, and then haul them back to the village.

That's what this woman was there for. Getting fresh water. She had to make this trip every day, and it wasn't much fun.

Jesus knew that.

"How would you like to never be thirsty again?" Jesus asked her.

"You mean I wouldn't need to keep coming back to this well?"

"That's right. I can give you living water. Drink this water, and your thirst will be quenched forever."

"Really?" She liked that idea. A lot. "Tell me about this living water."

So he did. It wasn't quite what she was expecting to hear. Better, actually.

What do you thirst for?

People who really care about you?

A place to belong?

Spiritual contentment?

Acceptance?

Triumph over some problems you just can't seem to beat on your own?

A purpose for your life?

You Need Living Water

The living water Jesus spoke about is still available. We know. We drink it all the time.

It's amazingly tasteful. Better than Gatorade or Mountain Dew.

Want some?

We can show you how to get it.

We really really want to show you.

Our church is committed to telling people how they can find living water.

Water that'll fill any spiritual emptiness in you.

Water that connects you to a group of people who care deeply about you.

Water that will enable you to spend eternity in heaven.

Water that'll drown any problem you face.

That's why Jesus came—to give you living water.

And it's why we're here.
